Conference Overview

Conference Goals

You are invited to the Eighth Statewide Conference on Co-Occurring Disorders in Burbank, California, at the Marriott Burbank Airport Hotel from October 26th—27th, 2011. The conference will provide an important opportunity for key stakeholders (policymakers, service providers, administrators, educators, researchers, consumers, families, volunteers, and peers) to explore emerging best practices for treating co-occurring disorders (COD).

This conference will focus on the transformation of systems to improve client care. This focus will be achieved by housing forums to expand collaboration among multiple systems of care, including mental health, alcohol and drug treatment, primary care/health, criminal justice, education, and child welfare.

The theme for this year's conference is: "Treatment of Substance Use, Mental Health, and Primary Care Disorders in the Era of Health Reform." The conference will explore comprehensive prevention screening, assessment, and treatment for individuals with co-occurring disorders. Conference participants will have the opportunity to engage in active dialogue with one another on the challenges of providing integrated treatment across systems of care.

The Conference Objectives are as follows:

- To identify obstacles and successful models within existing systems as we move in the direction of integration of services for COD care.
- To increase collaboration between Substance Use, Mental Health, and Primary Care agencies serving COD clients.
- To identify emerging best practices that address the complex needs of clients with COD.

The plenary presentations, workshop sessions, and displays featured in the foyer will provide ample opportunities for conference attendees to interact and network with colleagues and speakers. Conference attendees will be able to participate in both experiential and didactic learning workshop sessions.

The 2011 Conference Planning Committee is proud to announce this year's conference is a 'green event.' All planning and execution efforts have been done with mindfulness toward our environment and resource sustainability. Conference planning, marketing, publicity, invitations and registration were created paperless from the start, with this standard at the forefront. Attendees and Speakers are strongly encouraged to utilize electronic media for viewing hand-outs and materials, and presentations will be available to download prior to the conference.
